Petersbourg, Auguſt 6. On the 30th paſt arrived here Colonel Keyſerling from Oczakow, with the Particulars of the taking of that Place; the moſt remarkable of which, as related by him, are in Subſtance, That Felt Marſhal Munich came before it the 29th of June, O.S. and found the Turks had made Intrenchments at the ſeveral Avenues to it, which he attacked and carried; then approached within half Cannon Shot of the Town, and during his Approach, bombarded the Place with ſuch Succeſs, that it was on Fire in ſeveral Places, being for the moſt Part built of Wood; and two Magazines of Powder blowing up, deſtroyed a great Number of the Inhabitants, the Town being very full of People, with a ſtrong Garriſon conſiſting of about 20000 Janiſſaries and Spahis. Count Munich ſeeing the Town on Fire, ordered it to be attacked in three ſeveral Places, more to prevent their putting out the Fire than expecting to take the Place by Storm, without having firſt made a Breach. During

During this great Diſorder, the Don Coſſacks and the Huſſars perceiving that ſeveral Thouſand Men of the Garriſon were iſſuing out of the Gate towards the Black Sea, they diſmounted and attacked the Turks Sword in Hand ſo furiouſly, that they forced them back, and followed them Pell-mell into the Town, crying out in their Language, Nasky, Nasky, which ſignifies the Place is ours. This was no ſooner known to Felt Marſhal Munich, (who had then with him an Officer from the Garriſon, who had demanded a Suſpenſion of Arms for 24 Hours, which was refuſed) than he ſent 6000 Regular Troops to aſſiſt the Coſſacks and Huſſars, who got alſo into the Town, and cut to pieces all that oppoſed them: Whilſt this Confuſion laſted, thoſe Troops which had made a Feint to attack the Walls, actually ſcaled the ſame and got in, but not without great Loſs, there being about 1000 Men killed, among whom are one Colonel, two Lieutenant Colonels, two Majors, and 150 other Officers; and about 3000 wounded; of which Number are Lieutenant General Keith, Lieutenant General Baron Lowendahl, and Majors General Araktſheoff, Kruſhoff, and Backmotoff, beſides ſeveral other Officers of leſs Diſtinction. Felt Marſhal Munich had a Horſe killed under him, as had alſo the Prince of Brunſwick, who accompanied him every where and had a Page killed by his Side. The Turks on their Side, had near 17000 military Men, and about the ſame Number of Inhabitants killed, no Quarter being given at the Time the Town was taken, which was on the 2d of July, O. S. There are about 3500 Turkiſh Priſoners, which are all that remain of the Garriſon that were not killed or drowned; among the Captives is the Seraskier, named Jiagia, who is a Baſhaw of three Horſe Tails, and was Maſter of the Horſe to the late Sultan, and Son in Law to the late Grand Vizier Ali. The Baſhaw of Oczakow is alſo taken Priſoner: Five other Baſhaws of two Horſe Tails were killed. The Booty taken on this Occaſion is very conſiderable, and would have been much more ſo, if ſeveral valuable Things had not been conſumed by the Fire. In the Place were found 82 Braſs, and four Iron Cannon, ſeven Mortars, eleven Horſe Tails, and a very great Quantity of Small Arms. Before Colonel Keyſerling left the Place they had already buried 8000 Turks that were killed in the Streets; and the Walls and Ditches were yet covered with dead Bodies, that cauſed ſuch a noiſome Stench, that Felt Marſhal Munich was obliged to march 20 Verſts off with his Army, leaving only a Regiment of Horſe and one of Foot, to guard the Town and bury the Remainder of the Dead. The greateſt part of the Priſoners that are ſaved were found on the 3d hid in Cellars and Corners of the Town, and the Seraskier himſelf was taken in a little Boat (trying to make his Eſcape) by General Adjutant Biron, the Duke of Courland's Brother, and it was with much Difficulty that he prevented the Coſſacks killing him: He is to be brought to Petersbourg; as is alſo the Baſhaw of Oczakow. Lieutenant Colonel Wildeman, who brought the firſt News of this Acquiſition, ſet out from Petershoff laſt Sunday in order to return to Felt Marſhal Munich; her Majeſty has made him a Colonel, and has been pleaſed beſides to give him 2000 Roubles. Another Courier arrived here laſt Thurſday, with Advice, that Felt Marſhal Munich was marched with his Army towards Bender.

Berlin, Sept. 3, N. S. The Night before laſt a Courier arrived at this Court, with an Account of the Progreſs of the Czarina's Arms in the Crimea, ſince Felt Marſhal Lacy, with the Army under his Command, had entred into that Country: The Subſtance of which is, That they had burned or deſtroyed near One thouſand Villages, plundered one Town, where they had found a great Booty; and that in ſeveral Skirmiſhes which they had had with the Turks and Tartars, the Muſcovites had conſtantly beaten them and obliged them to retire.

Dreſden, Sept. 4, N. S. M. Keyſerling, the Ruſſian Miniſter, has received Letters from Warſaw, with the News of Count Munich's having beaten the Turks near Bender and taken that Place; though at the ſame Time he ſays that he has had no News directly from Count Munich, ſo that he cannot aſſure the Truth of it. By Letters arrived Yeſterday from Poland we have an Account, that the Conferences at Niemeroff would ſoon begin, the Turkiſh Plenipotentiaries having received Orders to open the Congreſs notwithſtanding the Rupture with the Emperor, upon the Declaration that his Imperial Majeſty has made, That though he had taken up Arms to comply with the Deſire of the Czarina, yet he ſtill perſiſts in the ſame Reſolution as before to employ his good Offices to eſtabliſh Peace between the Porte and Ruſſia. Other Letters from Niemeroff of the 15th paſt, mention the Grand Vizier's being depoſed; but that News ſeems doubtful.

Hague, Sept. 6, N. S. By Letters from Petersbourg of Auguſt the 17th, we have Advice, that Felt Marſhal Munich was marched directly for Bender, and that a Detachment he made of 4000 Men, under the Command of General Farmer, had met with a Body of 7000 Turks which he had entirely defeated. The States of Holland are expected here on Wedneſday, when they are to diſpoſe poſe of all Places Civil and Military, vacant upon their Repartition, it being one of their ordinary Aſſemblies. M. de Dieu, one of their Commiſſioners for the Tarif at Antwerp, is arrived here, and gone for Amſterdam to his Family, till the Return of the Anſwer from Vienna, to the Complaints offered in the Conferences already held at Antwerp.
